WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE'S LOVE SONNET ON SUNDAY NUPTIAL BRUNCHES

Since the ancient days of antiquity
For Sunday's Nuptial ceremony merriment
Twas the tradition to feed the guests
As from other villages they had been sent.

To the bride and groom and other village guests
In Toledo, the tradition lives on to be greater
Come and raise our spirits one more time
And we'll talk and raise toasts until its later.

So just drop by when you should awaken
There will be plenty of good food and libations
To the honored couple, their family and other village guests
Welcome to this Sunday Nuptial Brunch.

Gather all to Sunday Morning's Nuptial Brunch.
Food will be served each hour to munch.
