

ST BARBARA – THE MOTHER THERESA OF MILLER DESK (Retirement)

Candles burning in the night, our collective prayers, rising like incense shall soon take flight.
Intercede on our behalf - for us, the poor souls who have no hope and will soon lose sight.
Please dear and kind St Barbara... deliver this Acknowledgement to ship as scheduled and complete.
If you can't do this – then no one can! Please oh favorite Saint, save us from the fire of Johnny Miller's eternal heat.

I awake each dawn at 5:00 AM for Morning Prayer, and stumble to the altar with holiness and love.
Perhaps this is what will help the “Special Quotation” sail through engineering like the grace of a dove.
Have great pity on me Oh Dealer, who happens to be cheap as hell,
so please Sainted Barbara keep the retail price in line.
And I promise to take 20 percent of my commission and buy you a very special bottle of sacramental wine.

Your cosmic powers St Barbara are known throughout the entire world – North, South, East, and West.
Thus, it should just be a minor celestial intervention that our orders will ship without freight issues - a rather simple request.
Therefore, when the orders depart from Miller docks, spread your loving and mystical arms to protect them on the journey.
And dearest St Barbara... I plead for no concealed damages – as I whisper your name to heaven on bended knee.

Immaculate St Barbara... because your creativity and spirit is what inspired Michelangelo to paint the Sistine Chapel.
Perhaps when you have nothing else to do... please create some new and more creative literature from which we can sell.
And because the seamless garment of the robe that you wear, is from the color pallet of Heaven's full and majestic rainbow.
Can we borrow your dress to have the best and brightest fabric cards from which we can sow?

Oh! Gentle and loving St Barbara – I have gone on with these prayers and petitions much longer than I dare chance.
But only with someone as Holy and contrite as you – and indeed the full universe bowing to get only your glance.
We your admirers from Miller Desk – those both here and far – we humbly ask for your intercessions forever and a day.
But until that time when our souls meet again... we thank you for your endless love, generosity, and kindness in countless ways!
